

YOUR VOICE MATTERS.

Created by Monica Gordon,
Gaviella Keyles, Victoria Wallace,
& Peyton Moore 2021

Your Guide to the Coastal Commission.

ABOUT THE COASTAL COMMISSION

The Coastal Commission protects the California coast for present and future generations.

The Commission makes decisions concerning 1,271 miles of California's shoreline, including topics like:

PUBLIC ACCESS TO BEACHES.

SEA LEVEL RISE.

PROPERTY AND DEVELOPMENT.

OIL, GAS, AND WIND PROJECTS.

ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE.

CONSERVING WILDLIFE HABITAT.

WHAT DOES THE COMMISSION DO?

We work with local governments to:

PROTECT coastal resources.

Keep the coast open for ALL CALIFORNIANS.

Balance DEVELOPMENT & CONSERVATION.

Californians like you can participate in many ways.

SHARE YOUR STORY. SPEAK IN A MEETING OR SUBMIT A WRITTEN COMMENT.

Every inch of the 1200 miles of California's coastline exists as it does today because somebody fought to keep it that way. Learn about the next public meeting at this address.

www.coastal.ca.gov/meetings/agenda

Public meetings happen once a month and last three or more days. There are multiple ways to participate. The Commission looks forward to hearing from you!

You can participate in person or remotely!

SHARE IDEAS.

About an item on the agenda.

BE HEARD.

Send an email.

DON'T MISS OUT.

Submit a comment by 5:00 PM on Friday the week before the meeting.

- Call in by phone.
- Zoom in on a tablet, phone, or computer.
- Attend in person.

Submit a speaker request by 5:00 PM the day before the meeting.

About something that is not on the agenda.

- Call in by phone.
- Zoom in on a tablet, phone, or computer.
- Attend in person.

Submit a speaker request by 5:00 PM the day before the meeting.